

Fabrice Sottas - Cello

Fabrice Sottas began his study of the cello at the Conservatory of Music in Geneva and continued his musical education in the class of professor Jan Polasek at the Richard Strauss Conservatory in Munich. In 2002 he was awarded the fellowship of the "Fondation André François Marescotti" - City of Carouge (Geneva).

In 2004 he graduated as a professional cellist at the University of Music and Theatre in Munich. He spent two years at the "Glenn Gould Professional School" in Toronto where he attended master classes of renowned musicians such as Paul Katz, Laurence Lesser, Leon Fleisher and Lorand Fenyves. Performance courses with Valentin Erben and Wen-Sin Yang complement his musical training.

Fabrice Sottas is active in the field of chamber music, and teaches cello at the International School of Geneva. Through his teaching, Fabrice promotes the personality of each student and gives space to creativity. He shares his art with passion and enthusiasm.